Amitabha Garden

Where Chinese heritage
meets mindful living...

WHO WE ARE

Set on the River Thames in Greenwich, London, Amitabha Garden is a refined tea and wellbeing space where Chinese heritage is practised through quiet ritual. We host intimate tea ceremonies, incense experiences and cultural workshops, and curate artisan teas and natural incense - for private guests, communities and corporate partners seeking calm, depth and cultural authenticity.

Winter Tea Gathering

For 2-12 guests

围炉煮茶, or Winter Tea Gathering, is a traditional Chinese wintertime ritual of gathering around a small stove, where tea is gently warmed while seasonal fruit and small snacks heat over the grill.

We host this as a casual and small-group networking experience, guiding the tea selection, pacing, and serving so conversation unfolds unhurriedly - calm, intimate, and memorable.

Corporate Cultural Training

For teams working with Chinese clients, partners, or stakeholders, we offer polished, practical cultural training delivered either at your venue or in our Thames-side studio. Sessions are tailored to your industry and objectives, combining cultural context with confident, real-world etiquette.

One-Day Programme

A fully hosted day designed for Chinese delegations, clients, or VIP guests - combining cultural hospitality with a premium Thames-side setting. The schedule is fully customisable:

- Morning: welcome tea with traditional Chinese pastries
- Meeting: times tailored to your agenda; presentation equipment and large-screen display available
- Optional add-ons: lunch/dinner, tea ceremony, tea tasting, incense experience, or cultural workshop
